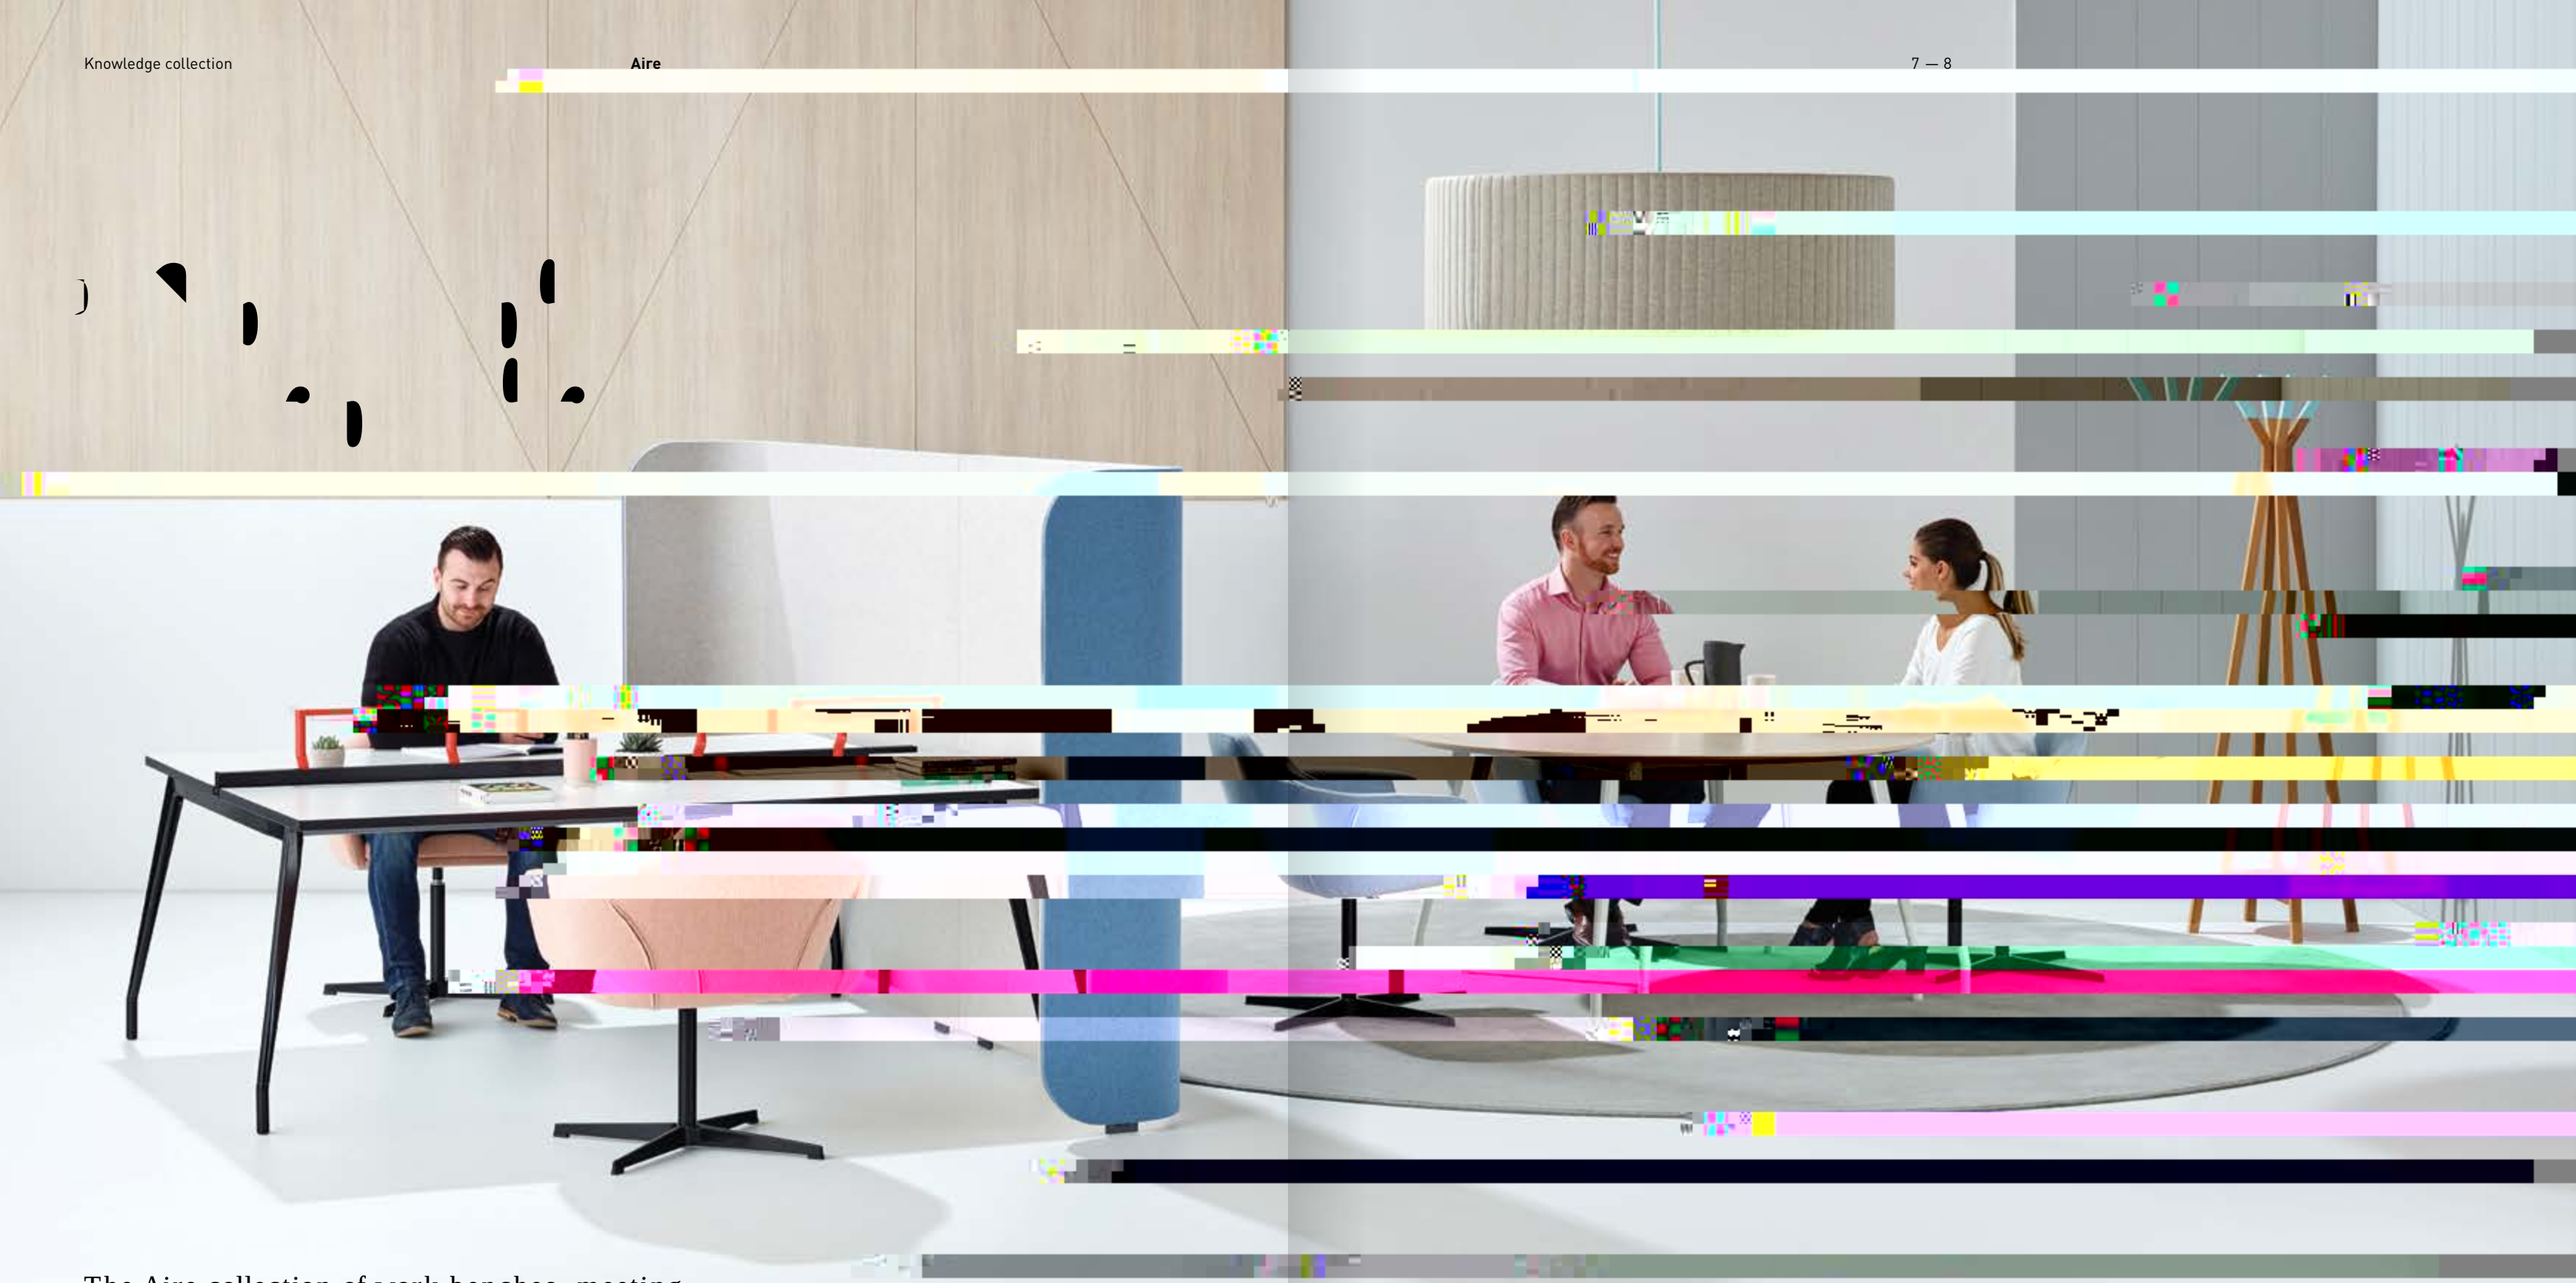
Mario Ruiz has a 20-year product design career that spans furniture, technology, lighting, office and applied graphics.

Aire



The Aire collection of work benches, meeting and fold tables was realised by Spanish designer Mario Ruiz in response to a progressive work landscape. Accommodating individual needs and team environments, Aire's flexible design and customisation abilities transform spaces to support an array of working philosophies, including collaboration, retreat, formal and informal communication, to name a few.

Echoing the elegant and light profile known to the Aire collection, the Aire Fold Table offers a flexible solution to contemporary and agile-based working, training and meeting settings. Featuring a highly engineered tilt mechanism, the tabletop is able to conveniently and safely fold vertically after use. Additionally, four lockable castors make its slender form easy to move between aisles, doorways, elevators and into storage compartments.

Bring audiovisual capabilities to the table with the Aire Media Stand. Weighted to hold virtually any screen up to 100kg, the unit is strong and longwearing. Despite this, it shares the elegant and lightweight design language synonymous with the Aire collection.

Every detail has been considered. Four large castors combine with handles to make moving the stand effortless. Meanwhile, the unit's tabletop leaves space to rest a tablet or laptop, while a cable cubby keeps all cables tidy and out of the way.
